Hydrate your soul, body and mind

Gray is the most neutral and calm of all colors. The mix between black and white ensures that the other colors in your interior are neutralized so that the overall use of color does not appear too restless. Gray with a hint of green, brown or blue is common in nature, think of the color of the sea on a winter day, the color of shell sand and shells, but also of stone colors such as pebbles and gravel.

A photograph of a modern interior corner. A beige corduroy sofa is positioned against a wall with a rough, textured, light-colored finish. The sofa is adorned with three pillows: a bright yellow square pillow, a black square pillow, and a round, shaggy brown pillow. To the right of the sofa, a small, dark green evergreen tree stands in a simple, light gray cylindrical pot. The floor is a light, neutral color. The overall aesthetic is warm and contemporary.

Sweet sweet life...

Romance is all about imagination: letting your imagination run wild and trusting your feelings. This means that the romantic living style can have a cool and unexpected side. The style is basically warm, graceful and soft, but above all quite neutral. With light colours, cuddly materials and a shiny detail here and there, romance is ideal for creating a warm welcome in any home.

Do you dare?

Color blocking with wintery shades. An interior trend that radiates cheerfulness and courage: the use of 2 or more cheerful, bright colors next to each other in large areas in your interior to create contrasts. Think of large surfaces such as colored walls, but also large colored furniture or art objects. And all this combined with sleek lines, graphic designs and colorful accessories.
